Today's Education
NEA JOURNAL

VOLUME LIX JANUARY-DECEMBER

1970

TODAY'S EDUCATION, the Journal of the National Education Association, serves the entire membership of the Association. It has the largest circulation of any professional journal. Its policy is determined by the resolutions and activities of the Association itself. It aims to give an overall view of education. It emphasizes pioneer undertakings. It seeks to encourage among educators a broader interest in the larger problems of education and life.

Persons binding their copies of TODAY'S EDUCATION: NEA JOURNAL into an annual volume may use this sheet for a title page. The 1970 volume includes nine issues; one for each month except for June, July, and August.

Elected officers of the National Education Association include Mrs. Helen Bain, president; Donald E. Morrison, vice-president, president-elect; George D. Fischer, immediate past president; and Nelson L. Kreuze, treasurer. Sam M. Lambert is executive secretary; Allan M. West, deputy executive secretary. John D. Sullivan, assistant executive secretary for communications and public relations, is publisher of TODAY'S EDUCATION. Staff members are: Mildred Sandison Fenner, editor; Walter A. Graves, managing editor; Marion B. Tucker, senior assistant editor; Marshall O. Donley, Jr., assistant editor; Joseph A. Perez, production and business manager; Robert F. O'Connor, advertising manager; Raymond K. Butler, Jr., circulation manager.
